1 Introduction

Karreman et al. (2018) give many examples of active citations. But passive citations are also used in practice (Karreman et al., 2018).

The paper by Knuth (1984) appears in the references in a different style than the conference proceeding article by Foster et al. (2003). Books also have their own style (Karreman et al., 2018, Chapter 6).
